

IP Declaration

- As per the Manual as well as the GS1 Intellectual Property Policy, the following pages provide an outline and description of the elements required in the IP Declaration.
- Pages 2 and 3 of this document set forth the information required for submitting an IP Declaration.
- Once the IP Declaration is completed, it should be forwarded to the proper GS1 Facilitator along with any and all supporting documentation.
- Failure to provide notification as required by the GS1IP Policy constitutes consent of the Participant to the provisions of the GS1 IP Policy, namely, the granting of a non-exclusive, royalty-free license relative to Necessary Claims under the GS1IP Policy.

Licensing Declaration

The Patent Holder believes that it holds granted patents and/or pending applications, with Necessary Claims, the use of which would be required to implement the above GS1 Standard/Specification and hereby declares, in accordance with the GS1 Intellectual Property Policy (Section 3.3), that:

Subject to the provisions of the IP Policy, the Patent Holder will grant a RAND license under Necessary Claims in order for implementers of the Standard/Specification to manufacture, use, import, offer to sell, lease and/or sell implementations of the above GS1 Standard/Specification.

For each Necessary Claim declared hereunder, please provide the following information:

- Patent Number/Application Number - Country
- Inventor(s)
- Owner/Licensees
- A detailed description of all "Necessary Claim(s)" and a citation of the relevant section(s) of the GS1 Standard/Specification covered – please list each claim on a separate line with the relevant section(s) of the GS1 Standard/Specification.
- Set forth a description of the basis for the assertion that the subject matter of any cited Necessary Claim is considered necessary to implement the GS1 Standard/Specification.

- For unpublished patent applications containing Necessary Claims, provide the filing date and attach a copy of the specification, drawings and prosecution history to the date of such unpublished patent application. No incomplete submissions will be considered to comply with the GS1 IP Policy.
- Set forth the principle licensing terms, including all fees required, the royalty rate, the manner in which royalties are to be calculated and any restrictions on the licensee, in sufficient detail for a prospective implementer to estimate the costs and requirements associated with implementing an GS1 Standard/Specification, should such licensing be desired by an implementer.
